PROCEEDINGS

Selma, N. C., October 20, 1925.

According to the decision of the fifty-first Annual Assembly of the Disciples of Christ of the Goldsboro-Raleigh District which convened in Wilson, N. C., the Fifty-second Annual Assembly met on the above mentioned date in the Church of Christ at Selma, N. C., Elder W. A. Fordham, Pastor.

The session was formerly opened by the Chief, Elder W. A. Fordham, who sang, "And Are We Yet Alive?" After which Assistant Chief Elder C. H. Cordon read the scripture lesson from the 13th chapter of Romans and made a very splendid and timely comment. Then a very spiritual prayer was offered by Elder James Wilkes. After Elder Cordon sang a hymn the Chief made some remarks respecting the work of organizing the Assembly. He explained that he had no desire to caucus during the course of organization and expressed his dislike for anything political in the church. After which several short talks were made by various brethren.

At 11:00 A. M., the hour for preaching, Elder J. Hail opened the devotional service and presented Elder A. Parker who was appointed to preach the Guide sermon. Elder Parker preached a very able sermon from the text: "And he said, 'How can I' except some man guide me?" He made many beautiful illustration from his subject, "We need a Guide," following it admirably in an extemperaneous manner which made a deep impression on the audience. After which Elder H. L. Shepherd led in a very able and spiritual prayer.

The Chief commented on the service and raised a collection of $10.25. He then made it the privilege of the house to adjourn before or after its organization. The house decided to adjourn before organization to allow the members to deliberate more on organization procedure. Doxology by the Chief. Benediction by his assistant.

At 2:00 P. M. the Assembly met with officers in their positions. The Chief led the hymn, "Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound!" After which Elder R. Thompson led by offering a very spiritual prayer, and Elder Cordon led the singing. Then the Chief arose and made his annual address. He expressed his thanks and appreciation of the favor which had been extended to him by Almighty God. He stated that this attention had been called to many perplexing situations to which he gave no more attention than possible. He further explained that he took up two very urgent cases, relative to some corrections made in regards to the Rocky Mount situation and that of Elder E. P. Parker in filling the vacancy at the Trenton Church. He also stated that he called the Council Board together for the purpose of devising some plan to pay off the indebtedness on the school property; also to eslect a delegate to the Washington-Norfolk Assembly to which suggestion he demurred on the grounds that the expense was too much. "There was an agreement made between the two Council Boards that halted an affirmative answer," he said, on his part.

Then Elder Cordon made some remarks concerning his position as assistant chief. He spoke about some matters being adjusted between Bro. Wilkes and Mrs. Rollins, and some matters concerning Mrs. Rollins and Mrs. Speight.
